REFUND POLICY

- All tuition payments must be paid in full before starting classes. However, at the student's request refundable fees can be applied to future courses/classes. After a student chooses his/her tuition payments, s/he cannot revert to the previous number of weeks paid.
- If a student is denied admission or enrollment by the institution, the student will receive a full refund of all monies paid, except for non-refundable charges.
- Registration fee is non-refundable and non-transferable
- Mail and/or courier fees are refundable only if admissions/enrollment related documents were not mailed by the school.
- If the institution cancels the student's program of study subsequent to a student's enrollment, the institution will refund all monies paid by the student.
- Prorated tuition refunds will be calculated on a weekly basis.
- If the student attends classes even for one day of the week, the school will count that week as whole week for the purpose of calculating tuition refunds.
- All refunds will be made within 45 calendar days.
- If a student never attends class (no-show) or cancels the enrollment prior to the class scheduled day of class or the date of cancellation, whichever is earlier.
- If a student attends class, the refund due will be calculated using the last date of date of determination.
- If a student provides advanced notice of withdrawal such that the 45-day window ends days from the last date of attendance (LDA).
- JGL representative has the task to submit any refund request from the student to JGL Director. Written notification is not required.

13. Refunds will be made only to the person, company or agency that paid the school. If the student paid for a program through an agency, s/he must apply directly to that agency for a refund.

14. All refunds will be made in the form of a check. However, if school related fees were paid by credit card, then the school will remit refund funds to the original credit card used for payment. If school related fees were paid by wire transfer, then the school will remit funds to the bank account from which payment originated.

15. A student who applies for a change of status and starts classes while waiting for the Department of Homeland Security's approval on their petition may qualify for a tuition refund in accordance to number 20.

16. If a student would like the school to remit refund funds to a person other than the student, he/she must provide a letter authorizing JGL to make check payable to the person assigned by the student. A valid proof of identification must be presented by assignee when claiming check. This is only applicable to tuition payments made by cash or check

17. If a student who enters the United States on an I-20 form obtained through the school, and subsequently cancels prior to the start of scheduled classes or never attends class, the school will retain: a. the equivalent of four weeks of payment at the non-discounted rate for a payment of less than 12 weeks

18. If student has started classes, the tuition payment will be reimbursed according to the following criteria:

a. Tuition payments for four weeks or less: Tuition payment is not refundable, not transferable and student is no eligible to make up any lost class time.

b. Tuition payments for more than four weeks: I. classes, the school will retain the amount equivalent to four weeks:

I. if payment at the non-discounted rate and will refund remaining balance to student.

II. but before or at the midpoint of their payment, JGL will retain a prorated tuition amount at the non-discounted rate and will refund remaining balance to student.

III. If a student withdraws after the midpoint of their payment, he/she will not be eligible for any tuition

19. In the event that no notice of withdrawal (written or verbal) is provided, the school will automatically administratively withdraw the student after s/he has been absent for a maximum of 30 consecutive calendar days (excluding any scheduled breaks of the school) and complete a refund calculation, processing any refunds to or on behalf of the student.

20. For students who have completed the first period of financial obligation or extended their enrollment at the institution but whose last date of attendance occurs before or at the midpoint of any subsequent period of for that period.

21. For students whose last date of attendance occurs after the midpoint of of the tuition for that period. Any tuition paid for the balance of the program will be refunded in full.

I was explained the terms and conditions of this agreement and my signature indicates that I agree to these terms and conditions. I also acknowledge that I have read, understood and received a copy of the agreement and the student handbook.
